

Words cannot express the admiration we have for you and we fully acknowledge the courage, strength and love you have for your child. We are already praying for you, before we even know who you are, because we know God knows. We plan to be completely intentional about sharing your love for your child as they grow in our home, and we can promise they will always be unconditionally loved by the both of us. We will share the love of Jesus with them daily, and demonstrate it by how we interact with them and each other. We believe that love and faith are verbs.

We are honored that you are on this journey with us, and we hope and pray that God continues to show His love to you and guide you through every step. It would be an extreme honor if we were a part of that journey. Thank you again so much for taking the time to view our story.

