

Dear Birthparents,

We can only imagine the whirlwind of thoughts and emotions that must be running through your mind right now, but we want you to know that we are thankful for you and your decision to bring your child into this world and make a plan for them and their future. Though we do not know you, we pray for you. We pray for your child and who God is designing them to be, and we pray that God will guide all of your decisions as you show a selfless love for your child that few people could possibly understand.

God chose to grow our family through adoption in 2019 when we were blessed to adopt a precious baby boy. Through that experience, God has taught us that adoption is so much more than fulfilling our desire to have children. Adoption is a beautiful picture of God's love for us as he adopts us into his family by faith in Jesus Christ. As God has welcomed us into his family, so do we desire to welcome children into our family in accordance with His will.

We honor your care and commitment for your child as you bring them into this world, and should the Lord lead you to choose us to play a part in their story, your child will always know how brave and courageous you are to show them such unconditional and sacrificial love. May God bless you in the days and weeks ahead, and may He guide your paths so that your decisions are clear.

With our prayers,
Darren & April
