

Dear Friend,

Even though we haven't met yet, we want you to know that you, your family, and this sweet baby have been in our hearts and prayers for many years. There are no words to fully express the gratitude we feel for your strength, your love, and your decision to consider adoption. It's an incredibly selfless and brave choice—one we don't take lightly.

Please know that if you choose us, your child will grow up always knowing how deeply loved they are by you. We will speak of your love often and with great honor. They will know their story began with your courage and that your decision changed our lives forever.

Becoming parents has been a dream we've held close for so long. We're not just excited to welcome a child into our home—we're hopeful that we might welcome you into our hearts and lives as well, in whatever way you feel comfortable.

Thank you for taking the time to learn more about us. We're praying for peace, strength, and clarity for you as you walk through this journey.

With love and gratitude,
Kaleb & Maggie
