

Dear Mama,

We want you to know how deeply we respect the love and courage you are showing in making this decision. We can only try to understand that it is no small or easy thing. You will always be honored in our home. To us, you are not just more precious than rubies—you are a woman of incredible courage and love. We keep you and your baby in our prayers. We promise that should you choose us, your child would grow up knowing how loved they are—not only by us, but also by you. They would always know their story began with your love. We would nurture them, guide them, celebrate their joys, and stand with them through challenges. We would make sure they know where they came from and that their life began with bravery and sacrifice. Because of you, our family could grow. Because of you, our home could be filled with laughter, learning, and endless love. At every milestone, in every celebration, we would carry gratitude for your decision. We see your bravery as an act of love beyond measure, and we would honor you always. Our hearts are open, our arms are ready, and we are as prepared as we can be to raise a child. Thank you for considering us for this awesome responsibility and blessing. If you have any questions, please feel free to ask.

"Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own."

Matthew 6:34
