

Dear Birth Family,

We want to begin by saying how much we admire your strength and courage. We are truly grateful that you are taking the time to consider adoption and to learn more about us. Please know that we are praying for you during this time and will continue to do so. We pray the peace of Christ will guide you and that He will give you strength each day. We hope it brings you comfort to know that you are being prayed over.

We have hoped and prayed to become parents for many years, and adoption has always held a special place in our hearts. We are so thankful for the opportunity to grow our family through adoption. We are filled with excitement and gratitude at the thought of welcoming your child into our lives. From the very beginning, your child will be deeply loved, cherished, and supported. We promise that your story, your strength, and the love you have for your child will always be honored and a part of their life. Your child will grow up knowing how brave you are and how much you love them.

Our family and friends are overjoyed and cannot wait to love your child just as they love us. We are blessed to have family nearby and a strong, supportive community of friends. We are also thankful to have friends who have adopted, which means your child will grow up alongside other adopted children in an environment where adoption is celebrated, understood, and openly talked about.

Above all, we want you to know that we are praying for you now and in the days ahead. We have such respect for the love and thought you are putting into this decision. Thank you for taking the time to get to know us.

With love and gratitude,
Julie and Scott
