

HI!

We're John and Jess! When we got married, we promised each other that we would always go on adventures together. In the ten years since then, our story has taken many twists and turns through infertility and IVF and ultimately adoption, but at every step along the way, we've been confident that the story that God is writing for us and our future children will be a beautiful one, full of adventure and love. We don't view adoption as a Plan B. Our son is proof positive that adoption has always been God's best plan for us, and we can't wait to see what comes next!

There's a lot more we could tell you about us: how we love to cook and travel, or how we lipsync to classic '80s songs, or even how we love hanging out with our nephews and goddaughters. But the most important thing to know about us is that we love Jesus with all our hearts, and, though we're definitely far from perfect, we hope people catch a glimpse of how much God loves them when they interact with us.

And that's our hope and prayer for you, too. That you would know how much you and your child are loved and prayed for. And if you choose us for the incredible honor of raising your little one, know that we will spend every moment doing our best to raise this precious life to be the best, kindest, and most loving human they can be; preparing them for both the good and the hard parts of life in a family that champions them and loves them (and you, too!).

With all our love,

john and jess
