

Hello!

We are Evan and Karrie!

Thank you for taking a moment to get to know us. While we haven't met yet, we already have so much respect for the courage and love you are showing as you consider what is best for your child.

Married for ten years, our life together is built on faith, laughter, and true partnership. After facing the heartbreak of infertility, those closed doors brought us to a place of absolute clarity. We truly believe God's plan for our family is adoption, and we feel a deep, joyful calling to this path.

If you choose us, your child will grow up cherished by three powerful sources: by us, by their Father in Heaven, and always by you. We promise our home will be a place where they are free to dream, supported in their goals, and safe to learn from mistakes. We aren't perfect, but we promise to give our absolute best every single day.

We take our commitment to you with the utmost sincerity. We promise to love your child unconditionally, share the heart of God with them, and provide every opportunity for them to flourish.

Please know that regardless of your decision, we are praying for your peace and strength. We wish only the very best for you and your little one. If you feel that our home is the right fit, we would be deeply honored to become a part of your baby's story.

With love and deep respect,
Evan and Karrie

"For I know the plans I have for you... plans to give you hope and a future."
